FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

HUTTON RECEIVES DIRECTOR'S AWARD

CHARLESTON -- Debby Hutton of Casey is the recipient of Eastern Illinois University's Board of Governors Bachelor of Arts Degree Program Director's Award.

The award recognizes and rewards the outstanding achievements of adult students who are near completion or who have just completed Eastern's Board of Governors degree program.

The Board of Governors degree program is a national award-winning program that offers adult students a fully-accredited baccalaureate degree which may be completed with minimal disruption of family and/or work responsibilities.

A graduate of Casey High School, Hutton completed her degree in August of 1994. She is currently working on a master's in business administration degree at Indiana Wesleyan.

Hutton is the daughter of Jennifer and Warren Briggs of Casey and the spouse of David Hutton of Casey. They have two children, Tyler, 8, and Lauren, 3.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a
